natural facts

communication is transport of information from sender to receiver(s) or absorption of it by the receiver(s) from the sender.

There are two communication channels. The sensual and the spiritual communication. For the sensual communication we have our five special senses. For the spiritual communication we have different sensors (on the ground of micro-biological micro-physical and micro-chemical mechanisms).

Spiritual communication is more immediate than sensual communication. It is the absorption of thoughts perceptions and feelings of the sender by the receivers in the same moment in which the sender thinks the thought perceives the perception and feels the feeling at first. Although it is the same moment the sender is the one who creates the information which is then shared in the very moment of its creation.

There are two types of information. Immediate natural source information and derivative information. Immediate natural source information is usually spiritually communicated by absorption.

Regarding the common sensual communication you are as often sender as you are receiver and usually you are both in the same communication, while regarding spiritual communication your consciousness has a biological disposition as sender or as receiver.

Hence, regarding spiritual communication you have either sending consciousness or receiving consciousness. This depends on your blood type. Type 0 rh. neg. is quite rare and provides for sending consciousness the other seven blood types (which equal 94% of the German population) provide for receiving consciousness.

Both types have their advantages and disadvantages. They belong to the same population having different functions which complement each other and are worthless without the other type.

The communication how it is described here shortly takes place within the whole population. While the sensual channel is the commonly among two or more but still individuals of the population used one the spiritual channel is due to the relation between a few senders but many receivers and the source value of the information and since it is quite one sided generally for everybody much more of a collective but an individual communication respectively information means. This corresponds to the different operating distances of sensual and spiritual communication. Whereas the former is limited to rooms of the maximum size of a football stadium (Maracana or Bernabeu) but able to be extended by technical means like telephone radio and television the operating distance of good (or too good (?)) receivers can under certain circumstances actually reach around the globe. However, this is the exception. Average range may something about 50 miles be. Good receivers chose good sources, so it is not only their distance but they absorb the information why they have to bridge the distance somehow. How exactly can be studied by learning the basics of Max Planck physics. (Too good are receivers who have left their whole bodies too often which is, first, not intended by their/our nature and, second, not the first but the very last step before or to blaspheme nature abuse and who did one day not find back fully any more. (Even the romans knew already, mens sana in corpore sanae.) Their consciousness appears often enough multiply split and very sick. My brother is a or even the prototype of such a sick ghost who cannot be regarded as soul not even sick soul any more. A law professor who is proud of two honorary doctor titles instead of a proper habilitation treatise and a Master of Laws of the doubtful University of Cambridge who suddenly started to commit passionately hard crimes against the individual collective and spiritual humanity of his own brother when both were over forty already by abusing the natural communication system and his brothers pure source capacities for population terror purposes (his style of inner peace security) plus using government agencies to apply physical violence next to the psychological violence of the consciousness abuse too again as deterrent for everybody in his brothers passive meanwhile matchless operating range and who does not feel guilty at all can only have a completely dead soul and an unbelievable dangerous mind. He either thinks that his holocaust sacrifices are inevitable to save the world peace or is obsessed to succeed sooner than later in his roman catholic bellum mundum efforts.)

This is very short how communication functions in healthy populations whose natural mechanisms work as they are intended to. Healthy populations are free, love truth and justice and treat each other as sisters brothers aunts and uncles, hence, have a natural popular family sense. (Do not know inadmissible popular complaints. Know popular complaints.) In really healthy populations none of these natural facts and mechanisms are kept or dealt with secretively. It is maybe not often addressed expressly if not necessary but never hidden or even denied.

Ideally healthy populations have good relations to their likewise healthy neighbour populations and are under no attacks.

Unfortunately this ideal is rare and, by the way, unnatural political unions like the firmly celibate oriented EU or even more than ever the useless nations union do not necessarily improve this picture and guarantee relaxed relations between their members. Those who are embarrassing happy to emphasise all the past seventy years that the nothing of seventy years, however, still seventy too many, during their peace in Europe are the longest peace full period ever, confront in the next sentence their security council colleague with foolish poison attack accusations.

(remark: ideal of healthy population presumes likewise healthy neighbour populations around ... and conclude the U conclusion the disease is infective and now an O conclusion what is about a healing process? infective? If it spreads like or better better than the tumour maybe what if it looks like about 16 free central healing fields in Freeland where taxes are unknown and people still not feel poor maybe? ... hm thought about relapse risks? what about some vital fresh air 30 year natural restitution expositions ?, agreed are going to deter too. smart therapy. infective healing process. Let's go!)

First, their eternity began with the murder of Jesus and is being terminated just momentarily in order to avoid the third externally scattering peak within the past 105 years of this internally the own civil populations aggressively attacking bellum mundum catholicum in its 202nd decade. And second exists their peace maybe fragile externally if you accept French Polynesia and a nuclear aggression per quarter between 1966 and 1996 as an internal French affair.

(Instead of rather a total destruction of uncountable whole and peacefull populations. Valuable (human free) populations, hence an unbelievable international nuclear cross spezies aggression.)

But the dying occidental populations are not attacked externally. The attacks consist in inhuman life frame conditions of all plus extreme brutal individual psychological and physical direct attacks on senders (sending individuals). In my case conducted or supervised by my own close far distant family members (mother brother) and/or the authorities of the state under the law FRG while protection of its citizens by the law over the state is blockable and widely done so by the state under it but above you and fails in my case to proud absolute 100 per cent.

Every unbelievability is sent live through their probably most ugly attacked victim since Franz Kafka but at least permanently reported by himself immediately and in clear text (under wave of analogies most metaphors and aliases) on the internet for nearly three years already. Sent live anyway but reported as live as possible too. And the criminals in the parliaments as well as in elected and election resistant permanent government staffs even still pretend not being aware of or not knowing me and my case at all. I have never come across and could never have imagined such an unbelievable arrogance. Our own states attack us occidental populations. And their psychological terror is already pure microphysical violence whether or not conventional physical violence is applied too.

European populations are under attack. All of them. Under attack of their own aggressive states. If they eventually want to defend themselves one day, which is in case of a present attack a natural reaction and often the best option, they must not reform they must remove their states. Legal and factual state structures must be removed completely (by the way incomparably easier than partly) together with the current representatives since they are only the henchman of the clerics (celibates and all other christian bishops and certainly more than many higher pastors and high priests) who are the true attackers above the states and their representatives. Such high above that they had never to doubt in their own form free directives nor in the firm believes of their government executives who would always execute them. Hence to remove the staffs only without removing the state structures would be useless and to remove the state structures without removing their state churches would be likewise useless.

However, if it is carefully done the other way round (decide consensual to remove christian churches sustainably from the globe first) all become three comparably simple steps to terminate the ancient middle aged and also in modern times never ending christian aggression eventually and to start the infective healing process literally by date.

Generally this must be done by the eventually self-defending occidental sovereigns themselves. (The populations who defend themselves against their own states. Here and now again more against the structures than against the current executives.)

However in such a naturalize-occident-project it looks different and should be done under globally consented guidance assistance and support from other spiritually more healthy earth regions (proposed method: start with central (infective if successful) field experiment). They engage in their own interests too because they are immediately very concerned and often enough themselves targets of the global christian aggression since the beginning of the day from which on mother earth is attacked by christian clerics without interruption until shortly before the end of the day in which the planet is already nearly completely destroyed.

Those natural facts and mechanisms of a healthy (civil-)population who consist always of its plants and animals and some of them, around 200 according to the pontifical view, of humans too, which are shortly described on pages one and two above are neither questionable nor discussable any more (except for added truth valuable comments) only because these facts are brash denied in occidental nations and unnatural nation unions openly against their own nature. Further discussions of this question with the eventually faster sinking occident would break acceleration again and be an unforgivable waste of time. However, they are still going to deny the actual case facts (next page) by ignoring my case and me further, which costs too much time already and even still pretending unawareness, i. e. here, of the communication picture of insane populations and the countless committed individual hard crimes with state agency involvement against my individual collective and spiritual humanity.

Natural facts and mechanisms do not need to be proved. Experts may explain them but to ask me, candidate for asylum elsewhere, there heavily abused current holocaust victim, for more evidential information than I have long since published on the internet and sent to various different international addressees would be unacceptable. In my situation it is simply impossible to describe the ongoing phenomenon people suicidal holocaust between world war peaks better.

The people consent on mother earth could be found on a people main tribe chiefs convention (President Xi and his worldwide colleagues only. No diplomats, no state secretaries no deputies only about maybe 200 tribe heads plus 2 individuals as convention attendants. Of course they bring along their life partners and maybe a few personal assistants). On Réunion, Indian Ocean, as proposal. There is only one topic on the agenda dissolvement of christianity in the outlined way and it may take three weeks or half a year. But as soon as the consent is found, it is going to be executed immediate and precisely, i. e. preparations begin to meet the date of the then next full moon 4. Year 4 ideally (unfortunately year 3 is now passing by already again).

In crime time table part two I described the above natural facts more detailed and upon real own experiences. On page 6 I explained why the German World Cup team 2014 still was in excellent mood. For everybody knows actually I did not mention how they were performing four extra-time-exceeding years later of this on- and ongoing collective psycho terror on my back!

The next World Cup is going to take place in very friendly but extremely hot Qatar.

Qatar host-friendly agreed to the wish to postpone the tournament from summer to winter and even to build airconditioned football stadiums. The tournament shall take place nearly during the hole worldwide most stupid religious advent time (though no religion of and in the Host Country and, though it even agreed friendly ignoring this embarrassing typical christian ruthlessness, the greedy christians did not even grant them one single play day during the advent peak time at its end which are public christmas holidays too. The WC ends on Dec 18 holidays begin on Dec 19. On days before the 19th school children are collected at German airports by police for violating school duty as happened a few times already in unbelievably insane Germany! No christmas holiday visitors able to come to Qatar World Cup 2022! More greedy imaginable?!!!!). I assume, with respect to the necessary good natural team spirit, at least in respect and relation to the moody performance of their team in 2018, Thomas Müller would agree to the view that better should be played during not at all religious Nature Week, year 6, rather than before or during Christmas 2022!

Prof. Leila Sadat and all you other doubtable (because extremely ambiguous) executives against (or for?) the crimes against humanity, come together slowly sooner now, please! Accept the basic and essential existence of individual and micro-collective (family) humanity first without which your international peace security value “collective humanity” is worth not even as much as you consider the value of one single copy of “Forging a convention for the crime against humanity” or so. Then inspired by this commitment to an important piece of truth of peace stick to your promise of “forging a convention against the crime against humanity” and urge to the time bridge tribe heads convention, Réunion, Indian Ocean, Year 4, latest Year 5, in order to bring Nature Week (instead of advent-time) as friendly guest present to Qatar who, by the way, might agree to a further but minor postponement of the tournament with its final being played on Sunday the 4th January. On 5th school reopens.

actual facts (represented in my case)

Please refer to crime time table parts one and two! Together they count only 84 pages and, hence, have yet not further summarize-able executive summery extent for a report of a 202 decades crime (conquer and suppress the entire mankind) which recently flew in my case where it currently sticks in the state of uncompleted and unterminated attempt. Only one Asterix allemand, petit pierre, is still resisting. Who knows how long he is going to be in the mood to survive ...

Do not expect an analysis of legal consequences. 2000 years of permanently committed christian hard crimes are not going to be terminated if you wait for international criminal judges.

Consequential facts are rather the coming point of the truth and two alternative action options from it. Huntington came close when he described the rising clash of civilisations. However, also close was missing the point. In clear text it is the clash of religions which is rising, always only forged by churchtianity and their extremely cunning catholic lead church. And in truth it is not human civilisations who clash. It is the christolic church structure which reaches far too deep into (or better out of) the other side from where directives come which are still followed by this bunch of, let it be 300, celibates (chef clerics) and it is the blaspheme abuse of the other side by the still living catholic sorcerer's apprentices which have terrorized people through three Methuselah ages, suppressed their populations and pressed them to expand and expand which clash with mankind. In Germany at least is a suicidal genocide going on for 70 happy peace years already. This is Holocaust. dead against alive. The Vatican is no member of the UN since it represents only a nation (in state law terms which consists of a population with a country and a common language) which died off already at the end of the first age which they needed to murder Jesus for to let it go ex officio. And then they declared this hard crime victim being god or his son or father (I did not understand it exactly so far) the bitch of his mother as virgin and god mother, and Jesus conceived by the holy ghost!

Unbelievable. Therefore they school doctrine wise their believes and expect a commitment to them in their main prayer "Apostles' Creed". In German language translated and back this means "Commitment to Belief". Germans pray it every week and some really start to believe the others to ignore the contents. Even 1000 years ago it would have been unbelievable but back then people did not know a lot either. Today this is belief against general basic knowledge.

They do not have a country. Sit in a part of Rome. This is Italy as far as I am informed. Speak Latin. This was spoken in the antique by Romans. Today a dead language. And have no nationality. This Idiot is from Argentina, isn't he? The clown before Benedictus XVI ((biol.) grandchild of Benedictus XV) is German. Who was ever Vaticanian? Nobody because this is biologically impossible. They are celibates. When does it become clear? They are no-natures. They and their existence on Earth is nothing but mass destructive. You cannot mix with them. Celibate which they in fact have accepted in exchange for their nationality (human origin. Celibates are the true stateless and only illegal living subjects anywhere on Earth.) prevents it. If they are burned still no nationals are, not even collaterally.

No nation identifies itself with the catholic or be it another christian church. It touches nobody to remove them. They have nothing of the slightest binding to the ground. To them no profane legislation applies. No one at all. They think, i. e. believe they hover over everything. Because they do so far. Permanently repeated sexual child abuse, mass child abuse, is not even a peccadillo in their persons.

For them profane law does not apply. Understand. Not to their disadvantage. Nor to their advantage. They may burn us. And did and did and did and nobody ever stopped these fire addicts. But we may. We may stop them. We may burn them too. Or let them carry their huge cathedrals and monuments back to their stone areas until the end of their life's.

15 years prison for murderer expect our murderers. Humans. No-natural murderers are not covered by the scope of our legislation.

Let us come back to Huntington and take only the bigger "religions" and consider christianity islam buddhism and maybe hinduism after jewism have been rather destroyed than only broken already. Body destroyed / soul broken by the only strictly hierarchic cross profane state borders world- at least occident-wide organized church-religion.

It is always churchtiantianity who start the aggression. They come to other regions and bring them missionaries of the only stupid believe!

In these regions nobody is interested in stupid beliefs which contradict every sane and sound mind judgement already and more than ever which contradict long existing natural wisdom (knowledge and know how (no need always to know why (curiosity killed the cat (-holic (in the end of his eternity))))). Oops, black magic (((((((ass))))))) hole (S (...never seen again ...))

However, aggressive catholics (short: celibates) ignore resistance against their missions and start holocaust schemes to suppress new populations everywhere. They started in Rome after Julius Caesar had died. 2000 years later they consider entire Pan-America, entire Europe probably entire Australia and New Zealand and half of Africa as their sheep, their holy children of their unreachable holy papa in the Vatican, who, only, could not avoid to get a bowl of water poured over them as infants and since being considered lucky members of ICCIGoH as well as of the catholic church and as catholic if your stupid parents were proud or inactive catholics at least.

(I tried to contact my holy papa but could not find his email-contact details. I sent my mail to/for him to holy big brother cardinal Rainer Woelki archbishop of Cologne. By the way, this is where I introduced and referred to myself as little peter for the first time. (If you like you can read both in one file here <http://familienzuechtigung.com/sites/default/files/pdf%20/thebeginningofapenfriendship.pdf>). Since neither brother nor father ignored nor replied I put a first follow up straight on the website. Later I wrote another email to Rainer addressing both (I called this file: real vs. artificial art and you kindly find it here: <http://familienzuechtigung.com/sites/default/files/pdf%20/realvsartificialart.pdf>) Whether holy or not, I would like to have a direct contact way to my father).

As firm catholic you have to believe in the holy roman church. Read their Apostel's Creed!

(... I really had to laugh when I read it just now again (maybe for the sixth time in my life). Here, read yourself please:

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting (((((((oops)))))))).
Amen.

(Hard to determine the best line. My favourite is the forgiveness of sins. They require it actively and expect it passively. Born of the virgin Mary is not bad either. I did not know this with the right hand of the Almighty in line 12. (And...? ...Would you do? ...Would you believe ?)).

Only, celibates consider their sheep wrong. There are no nearly 2 billion truly believing christians on this earth although they are bothered to be taught religious stupidity since small-childhood and disgusting religious rituals as to celebrate the last meal of the proto-type hard crime victim every weekend since his murder 2000 years ago and in every christian church.

They are suppressed populations and going to be and feel relieved from the burden of their baptism when they follow the funerals on the universal collective consciousness stage Sette Colline (as place holder for former Rome which is going to be renamed by its citizens).

They have no natural persons as members who would really miss them and no population as their natural origin who would miss them unless the Italian. Mussolini at least granted them their diplomatic status quo. Italy is competent anyhow. However, not only Italy any longer. I doubt they would reject assistance.

And that was not even a tiny part of the story. Human populations are a not even a tiny little part of life on our planet. No other living being would ever miss them. You cannot even feed them as can food for dogs or cats. Simply unenjoyable. The decomposition smell of their ghosts let you throw up already.

Nearly unacceptable to serve them our fine Thaigers. However only one time and they are going to be compensated with something real delicious. The cats. Probably they do not eat them anyway. Play a little bit and then turn disgusted away ...

Would you believe in a holy catholic inquisition commission (board of their church)? No? But you have too. You are baptized. If you do not commit catholic beliefs you have to express it otherwise your are count as one of their lucky sheep. You can cancel your membership and by this way wave your stupidity tax.

that this does not yet seem to be worth the effort to declare your crexit. Please remark eventually. Doing nothing is like declaring your commitment to stupidity.

Their holy inquisition commission in the middle age or antique likewise was and is called High Beliefs Congregation its current director being Prof. Benedictus XVI. That is their misunderstanding of law.

Even 1000 years ago it would have been unbelievable but back then people did not know a lot either. Today this is strict belief implementation and control against basic general knowledge and they are as active as in their whole times, only the dimensions differ a little bit. The effect is the same. Total destruction.

That was truth.

Options are to not (re-)act but watch as usual and in order to see Huntington visions becoming more and more and eventually most real ...

or, surprisingly, to act and (((((((oops)))))))))»
