

Thailine (timeline) of fame

From day 18 moon 2 year 7 till the final end of peters, and in the same time of the last, Happy Holocaust surprise action play conducted in Cologne Germany.

Play director: peters brother Claus

Teams: peter against the others

Start of the surprising journey to the holy mega floor: 1 June 2012 (which was 12 years ago for the first day of the first moon of the first year of nature age equaled 8 May 2017)

Winner: peter

Loser: Claus and his junta (after the state coup on people level in the end of 2015) where peter was waiting to be honoured as winner already for eternities ...

From today on the additional penalties awaiting the losers who still refuse to become aware of the encounter on peters global collective amphitheater stage will be as follows:

In case one or a group of muppets either of Berlin or of one of the other 16 incomparable German democracies declare their unconditional defeat before somebody else does the one or the group enjoy a general penalty freedom. However, since peter expected them to declare the unconditional capitulation already on day 1 of moon1 of year 1 the losers are fair to be called late. This is why they are going to be fined with one month work (rudern or tragen) per one day of delay. Should the delay exceed 30 days one of the losers will be chosen randomly and be executed on a German public square. After 60 days the second loser is going to be chosen randomly and to be executed on another German public square and so on and so on and so on ...

Should neither one of the junta members or a group of the junta governments declare their defeat clearly enough nor peters brother Claus comply with peters claim explained today when he is going to visit the play director tomorrow after or maybe rather before his university lecture in order to be handed out a first payment of his claims in damages of 150.000 Euro as well as in order to be informed about the whereabouts of his fiancée princess Carmen Thomas and her princesses princess Joana Thomas plus the valid victors parole within 14 days from today, hence until day 1 moon 3 bpeter expressed his expectation that the elder generation of Bonn Muppets is going to take over the initiative and to declare peters victory clearly enough for the Berlin successors to step back. However, in this case the Berlin losers are booked and confirmed Rome candidates. Should the Bonn muppets fail to meet this timeline unexpectedly since they declared yesterday on tv already their respect for peters impressive performance against Claus who they compared to the former spy Kanter who was placed by the Stasi the former DDR secret service in the middle of Germany's center of power the Kanzleramt next to Helmut Kohl Peter is going to remind them polite in the person of Otto Schily from SPD who used to be an attorney colleague of peters that peter would not be able to avoid to extend the scope of material guilt relevant for peters blasphemec loss of life time back to all living muppets i. e. all muppets still alive who have ever served in the Bundesrepublik Deutschland in the case the Otto Schily Generation should fail to meet the extended time line till day 15 moon 3 year 7.

ps. whether or not people are going to feel grate one day and even free enough to express a word of it peter is expecting the due respect for years already. Everybody who considers to go on insulting him must be aware of serious consequences of at least 15 years rudern oder tragen. In this context it is worth to mention that this penalty may quickly grow up to thirty years considering the most evil lie of not being alive (the own spiritual communication nature presented to us from our creation consciousness is blasphemously cowardly denied in order to fool a computer program) any more which is regularly combined with the insult. Thank you for your recent support!
